Action Plans on Strategies

- We had Texas Standing Tall come to our coalition for a Media Training.

How can we as a coalition decrease underage drinking?

- We discussed about maybe how are the youth are getting ahold of any type of alcohol. Brian Lemons shared that we are aiming at stores but store have a smallest proportion of secondary students who obtain alcohol.
- As a coalition, we discussed that social hosts can be anybody.
- The coalition also discussed about Minors Law, how that can be hard to prosecute, and the lack of evidence.
- The coalition came up with a possible solution: Reduce Social Access by Social Host Ordinance, Law Enforcement Training, and Media Campaign.

- How do you know about Underage Drinking?
 - o Seen it
 - o Social Media
 - o Friend of a friend
 - o They are youth
- As a coalition we discussed the components of Social Host Ordinance:
 - o Civil Liability
 - o Noise Violation or Zoning Violation
 - o Cost recovery – This cost too much money to respond to emergencies at parties
 - o Due Process
- Texas Standing Tall informed us about a Policy Action Statement
 - o As a coalition we came up with a Drafted Policy Action Statement
- After the Policy Action Statement, the York House youth started sharing their inputs about how they got alcohol growing up.
- Texas Standing Tall also informed us that maybe as a coalition get some Public Service Announcement (PSA) to target more of the community.

Prescription Drugs:

-Table to discuss at the next coalition meeting due to the fact that we have Texas Standing Tall Media Training.

Marijuana:

-Table to discuss at the next coalition meeting due to the fact that we have Texas Standing Tall Media Training.

Closing:

- Texas Standing Tall informed the coalition that there are other trainings for the Media and they encourage everyone to try to receive those training also.
- Melissa from TPCC informed the coalition about the training with Texas Standing Tall for another Media Training.
- Linda Benavidez discussed about Girls Night Out event in September.
